

O'WEEK 2023 STALLS

TERMS & CONDITIONS

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. Your club registration with YouX must be current from the date your stall is booked and throughout O'Week.
2. Full payment must be made to confirm your booking.
3. No food or beverages are to be sold from stalls. Some foods may be offered for free at stalls in restricted quantities (lollies unlimited, other foods and beverages 50 units daily unless otherwise approved in writing). All food and beverage giveaways must be outlined in your booking form. Exceptions may be negotiated. In 2023 all food give-aways must comply with the University guidelines – no single use plastic. Plastic free events with compostable packaging is required.
4. No non-University students or third party organisations may operate, work in, or spend time in the stall.
5. No more than 2 club members may operate the stall at any one time.
6. Clubs must operate within their allocated stall space. Roaming and mobile operations are prohibited unless negotiated with YouX. Please include details in the comment area for review or contact us directly at youxclubsevents@adelaide.edu.au.
7. All club members operating the stall must report to a YouX Events staff member at the start of their shift, to receive a name tag.
8. All who participate in this event do so at their own risk. YouX and its employees, and contractors do not accept responsibility for any injury, damage or theft to any person or property arising by reason of attendance at the event. YouX does not provide insurance cover for any items of equipment, exhibits or personal belongings being the property of any event participant.
9. YouX does not provide insurance cover in regard to personal injury or accident for non-student event participants who come on campus for whatever reason or purpose. It is the responsibility of the participant to arrange and pay for adequate public liability insurance and indemnify YouX against any and all claims arising out of participation at the event.
10. Each club and its participants are responsible for the cleanliness of their area in front of and behind their stall. Failure to do so may result in the club being liable for cleaning costs.
11. The general conduct and use of offensive language, inappropriate or offensive material, or behaviour of participants that may reflect adversely on YouX, or any breach of this Agreement or of the accepted rules in respect of this Agreement, may result in the termination of this Agreement by the YouX and the loss of any stall booking.
12. In all respects and at all times under this Agreement participants to the best of their ability, accept the reasonable directions and instructions of YouX Management, and assigned Coordinators of YouX or University of Adelaide Security, including adherence to any Noise Protocols Agreements, conduct or start and end times of participation and/or performances.
13. In the case of inclement weather, please do not assume that the event will be cancelled. YouX management will make a decision regarding a change of venue if
